THE NATION AND THE SCHOOLS

America was made by its system of free education; in no other way could its soul—as a single soul—have gone marching on triumphant and unafraid. The America of tomorrow is just as surely being made in the tens of thousands of schoolrooms where nearly one-fourth of all the inhabitants of the land are being taught who we are and why we are and that democracy is for the average man the best form of government yet devised. There are things very wrong about some of the schools, some things that are wrong about all of the schools, but of them all may be said that they are the living embodiment of the spirit that made us a nation, the very symbol of our freedom. We wish that they took into account some more responsibility, world consciousness—but even without these they are the very core of the nation's life.

Our schools must go on; we never needed them more than now. They must be progressive, they must change to meet changing conditions, they must claim no privilege they cannot justify, but—they must go on.—William Frederick Bigelow in Good Housekeeping.

A REAL TEXAS ABORIGINE

Discovery of an ancient skeleton with remarkably big molar teeth has been announced at Abilene, Texas, by Dr. Cyrus N. Ray of the Texas Archeological and Paleontological society. Dr. Ray, who unearthed the skeleton about eighteen miles from Abilene, believes that it may reveal a prehistoric type of American who camped and hunted in this region. Previous excavations yielded a deeply buried campsite in an eroded river bank, about half a mile distant.—Kansas City Star.

U. S. G. PLANK

U. S. G. Plank, 76 years old, former assistant superintendent of Haskell Institute and athletic director of Kansas university, died unexpectedly at his home in Lawrence early Monday morning, April 5, after suffering a heart attack. At the time of his death he was serving his second term as Douglas county clerk.

Mr. Plank took up his work here in 1898 as disciplinarian and had advanced to the assistant superintendency in 1903 when he resigned to join the staff of Kansas university.

Through the years since then he remained a friend of the school, demonstrating his interest by his visits at commencements, homecomings, games and many other occasions.

NOTES OF INTEREST

Dr. and Mrs. Fred T. Renick and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. King were Kansas City visitors Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Stewart and Miss Benjamin were in Kansas City, Missouri, Thursday on a shopping trip.

Miss Dosey visited Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Peterson at Excelsior Springs, Missouri, Sunday.

Miss Grace Stewart, Sapulpa, Oklahoma, was the week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. Ethel Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. King have as their guest Mrs. Henry C. Herr, Moorestown, New Jersey. Mrs. Herr is the mother of Mrs. King.

Miss Jessie Marsh, Haskell senior clerk, left for Washington, D. C., Saturday night, where she will be in attendance at a meeting of a group of senior clerks of the Indian Service.

Dana Knight, Robert Summers, Kenneth Scott, Jeanne Archambeau and Marie Beane, students of the arts and crafts department, presented puppet shows at Seneca Indian school, Wyandotte, Oklahoma; Sequoyah Indian school, Tahlequah, Oklahoma; and Pawnee Indian school, Pawnee, Oklahoma, on April 1, 2, and 3. They were accompanied by Miss Sibyl Malm.

The newest addition to the Haskell faculty is Reverend E. Russell Carter, director of religious education. Rev. Carter came to Haskell from Seneca Indian school Wyandotte, Oklahoma. He attended Earlham college, Richmond, Indiana, being graduated in 1932. Following graduation he spent one year as a missionary among the Iroquois of New York then accepted the position of director of religious education of the Friends church, Indianapolis, Indiana, from where he went to Oklahoma. Reverend and Mrs. Carter and their young daughter, Phylis, are making their home at 5 Winona street, in Lawrence.

POCAHONTAS HALL

Thelma Cochran returned from Tuttle, Oklahoma, last week.

Catherine Vieux visited her people at Mayetta Sunday.

Sarah Jane Reed spent the week-end in Kansas City, a guest of Katherine Taylor.

Mrs. Speelman will be in Topeka Tuesday to hear "Madam Butterfly" and be the guest of Bishop and Mrs. Wise.

Roses and peonies were planted last Saturday. Brigham Minthorne is our head gardener this spring, and we welcome him to our staff.

Mrs. John McEwen Ames of Topeka and Mrs. Julia Peterson Adams were our house guests over the week-end. They both came to attend the student council play.

Christine Crowe, Maxine Breuninger and India Noble came to see us Sunday. Maxine is a senior in the University of Kansas hospital at the Rosedale training school for nurses.

KOLATI COTTAGE

Tuesday, March 30, Eunice Hadley was the dinner guest of Jo Anna Hauser.

Saturday, April 3, Miss Benjamin and Miss O'Hara were luncheon guests of Florence Lunderman and Anna Mae Keel. At a slumberless party our guests were Miss Bemis, Fern Colley, Oleta Waldon, Irene Slow, Esther LaPointe, Adah Bente, Marie DuPris and Fern Roulliard. A waffle breakfast was served to the guests Sunday morning.

Tuesday, April 6, Vera Jamison was the dinner guest of Anne Locust.

Our last week at the practice cottage! Besides having a nice time, we also have learned a lot. We found that cooperation in the home is most essential. The girls are anxious to put into practice what they have learned.—Jo Anna Hauser.

OSCEOLA HALL

Raymond Williams took the list of the show-goers last Saturday for Granada's matinee and the names were Richrad Pratt, Harry Motah, Thomas Herrick, Raymond Mike, Henry Wilson, Quinton Crow, Glen McGuire, Pete O'Kimosh, Spencer Fire and the carrier.

Mostly So: Exalted compliments were directed to "Nat" Wilson the other day when he strode out for the prevo in his "hook-em boots". . . Mr. Sportman's prophetic column of entrees and places of the field and track meet of Osceola vs. Keokuk changed somewhat on account of the "dark horse's" supremacy in the events. . . The football squad's jackets were the "eye catchers" of the campus last week when they were donned by the lettermen. . . Prongs for ejecting the dandelions are again being sharpened and will be ready for action at the first call to war.

VOCATIONAL NEWS

Maintenance Department: We have completed general repair work and a new set of doors on Mr. Ead's garage. The vegetable bins in the root cellar have been rebuilt. The doors and locks of the guest room of Powhatan have all been repaired. We put up drapery rods in Mr. King's apartment. We also repaired a screen door for Sacajawea hall. Some repair work has been done on the roof of Mr. Spaulding's house, and on the roof of the garage at the main office. Our painting in the shop has also been completed.

We are now working on a porch at Mr. Rummage's residence. Screens for the front porch of the hospital are being repaired in the shop. We have just started the new cottage which is to be built this spring.—Lawrence Jacobs.

Blacksmith and Welding: Walter Suagee is on leave. We hope that he will return soon to finish the year with us.

Most of the seniors have been putting in two hours practice on electric welding. From now on they will weld over head one hour each.

We have five graduates this year. They are Joe Summers, Sterling Meredith, Alex Anywaush, Walter Suagee, Luther Deere and Benedict St. Jermaine.

The greatest thought here now is our compressor which is nearing completion. The motor and the compressing mechanism will probably be finished by the end of this week. The hoods which will enclose the motors will be built later on.

Power Plant and Machine Shop: The machine shop has undergone a big change since all the belts and shafts have been removed. The boys have been remodeling the shop and no work has been turned out, but the crew expects to accomplish a lot in the near future with effective motor driven machines.

Homer Folsom and Henry Staples are installing a coil in the breeching so as to heat hot water. This is a very efficient way in which to heat water.

Norman Freemont and Everette Renville installed a small radiator in Mr. Fowler's bath room. This job required some thinking but they came through with flying colors.

This queer weather which has given everyone a cold seems to have effected the whistle as it has lost its tone several times. Pete Shawanbin remedied this by putting a drain on the high pressure trap.

A lot of practical work is expected by the force during the summer as the houses from Mr. Anderson's to Mr. Meyers' residences are to be steam heated before next winter.—Marion Miller.

Plumbing: In the early part of last week Sylvester Masqua, John Willis and Pete Doxtator installed a gas meter in Mr. Spaulding's residence. We have a similar job started at another cottage.

John Chicks was the master custodian of the disposal plant during the past week. In the latter part of the week our sadly weakened force aided Chicks in taking steps to to make the plant more presentable.

Scattered around through the week the different boys did repair jobs such as repairing the cake box for the kitchen oven, repairing faucets and flush valves, and other plumbing maintenance work on the campus.—Kenneth House.

Print Shop: The printers have now entered the busy season when time preceeding commencement will be very valuable here at the shop.

The educational bulletins for the home economics department is nearing completion. With composition done and pages made up presswork will start as soon as the Miehle is free.

Some very fine compliments were received on the programs printed for the "Twinkle-Inkle" program. These programs required good press-work and Francis Wanageshik gets the credit for doing this job.

WHAT THE BOYS HAVE BEEN DOING: Howard Windlowe completed 2000 transcriptions of school records. Glen McGuire made 1250 tickets for the "H" club carnival. Pemberton Doxtator has begun press work on the abstract of requisitions. Francis Wanageshik printed ribbons for the Haskell-Ottawa track meet. George Oliver, part-timer, is on lesson 6 in his text book, "English for Printers," studying prefixes and suffixes. Charles Flood printed 5000 corner cards on Leader envelopes. Return addresses printed on 10,000 envelopes for the school office and 500 shipping labels in three-colors is work credited to ye reporter.—Murray Lawrence Hill.

Landscape and Gardening: In our class discussion for the past couple of weeks we have been studying about the value of plant food supply and the purpose of moisture, culture of onions, importance of the potatoes as a vegetable crop, control of diseases and insects, objectives in the production of the potato, and soil productivity as affected by crop rotation. All these are being studied under vegetable gardening.

With the aid of part-timers and trade-finders the field is in process of preparation for planting.

Several hundred roses have been planted on the campus. They will patch up unattractive spots on the grounds.

Several trees were taken out and transplanted somewhere near the disposal plant. This job was done by trade-finders and some commercial boys who are detailed here.

The boys of the landscape department are busy getting ready to plant onions, potatoes, tomatoes, pepper and other vegetables which had been planted in the hot bed and are about ready to be replanted.

To mention again the "G-men," they are still busy working faithfully in hauling garbage and trash. Paige Roy is another addition to the G-men who is now doing his bit for the department.—Alcarlo Gonzales.

Painting and Decorating: Through intense study and training, our prospective graduates are qualifying themselves to correctly analyze your painting and decorating needs and submit an estimate of the cost so that you may feel as if you are entrusting your painting into the hands of a master painter.

Pete Sitting, Raymond McClure, John Wayne Jake and Wesley Wishkeno are in the act of beautifying the girls' tennis court surroundings by applying coats of protective paints on the light towers, posts, rails, etc.

One of our full-time painters, John Carney, was separated from his tonsils this week. Levi Horsechief is recovering from his recent visit to the hospital for the same purpose.

Richard Pratt, Benedict Quigno and Harry Wilson are executing their paint spreading ability in hallways at Winona hall. John Granbois and George Hicks are applying the finishing touches to the wash rooms in the same building.—Kenneth Scott.

Auto Shop: The boys in the other group did a nice job in rearranging and painting some of the shop equipment.

Mr. Canfield gave us each a booklet on how to use tools. This booklet is put out by the Starrett tool company and contains some very valuable information.

Raymond Eddy and Ben Shoemake are working on a 1934 Chevrolet coupe. The job is to overhaul and adjust the rear axle.

Harry Motah and Jerome Whitefeather are grinding valves on the two-ton Holt caterpillar. The fan shaft on this "cat" will be refinished also.

Tuesday morning of this week we had a little surprise waiting for us when we reported for work. Instead of the usual class discussion during the first part of the morning we had a test on the storage battery. From the marks on the test papers it can be readily seen that our boys know their batteries.—Jerome Whitefeather.

Electric Shop: A group of electricians ran conduit and installed a motor and switch on the motor driven hack saw in the power plant. With the exception of putting on conduit covers our job is finished. Every machine is individually driven by one motor as the overhead drive has been taken out.

Wharton Bright is in the hospital. We hope he will be back with us very soon.

Quinton Crowe and John Christenson have been taking care of the small job orders that come in.

Chester Crowe and George Ogden have spent considerable time installing a motor and a reversing type drum switch on a lathe in the power plant with the assistance of our instructor, Mr. Welfelt.

LaJoie Doctor and Prentice Tiger have installed lamps for lighting up the boys' and girls' tennis courts.

Cabinet Making and Carpentry: As our class work this week we are taking, how to joint, set and file a circular rip saw.

Ray Williams repaired a refrigerator for Mr. Ship-she.—Ray Williams.

Transportation Department: The vehicles used on the trip to Wyandotte, Oklahoma, with the puppeteers were the 1936 V8 sedan and the 1936 Chevrolet truck. The cars were very dirty upon their return so Wesley Bigjoe and Clarence Stone were given the job of getting them cleaned up on the wash rack. They were serviced in the auto shop.

This week the boys are busy hauling the dirt, etc., away from our campus to the dumps and the rocks to the rock crusher. The rocks that have been crushed will be used to improve some of our secondary roads and the driveways adjacent to garages.

With the coming of the inter-mural track meet we have been requested to prepare the track in the stadium for this event. Recently the carpenters have made us a small drag to use on the track. After dragging the track we will roll it with our Fordson tractor.

These days when there are so many students having their tonsils removed, a considerable amount of laundry has to be changed for the hospital. This job has always been our duty. It requires husky men now-a-days to perform this task. We also change laundry for the Shack three times a week.—Wesley Bigjoe.

THE JUNIOR VOCATIONAL CLASS

Mr. Davis is our sponsor.

He called a meeting on April 1 to elect officers for the spring. The outcome of this election was as follows: Henry John, president; Raymond Shawa, vice president; Ben Shoemake, secretary and treasurer; and Alcario Gonzales, sergeant-at-arms.

We talked about the coming events of spring especially the junior and senior prom. Plans are being made for the prom with the help of Mr. Davis, who has given us some new ideas which we know will please the seniors.—Benjamin Shoemake.

HONOR ROLL

The following students were successful in making the honor roll at the completion of the last report period:

COMMERCIALS

Juniors: Wanda Gray, Elsie Smith.

ACADEMIC

HOME ECONOMICS NOTES

PAY LUNCHEONS: On March 30, Elizabeth Matchie served her luncheon. Her guests were Freda Counter, Mary Blalock and Mrs. Louisa White.

On March 31, Beatrice O'Jibway served her luncheon to Alvina Big Crow, John Carney and Miss Silvene.

Katherine Rivers served on April 1. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley, Mrs. Speelman and Mrs. Pearson were her guests.

On April 2, Geneva Luton had as her guests, Mr. Rose, Mr. Lantis, Nellie Jackson and Carol Youngbird.

On April 5, the last pay luncheon was served by Willa Mae Spybuck. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. King, Mildred LeCompte and Lawrence Hill.

Miss Spencer and the senior girls wish to express their appreciation to the faculty and the students who have attended these pay luncheons. Their cooperation has helped make this project possible.

SENIOR DINNERS: The 12 B senior class has started its senior dinners with Corrine Fairbanks as the first hostess serving on April 6. Her guests were Father Hoffman, Miss Cosgriff, and Jimmie Scholder. Daffodils and candles were her table decorations. Frankie Secondine was her waitress.

Frankie Secondine served her dinner April 7. Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding and Elliott Welch were her guests with Corrine Fairbanks as her waitress.

The senior clothing class is making its wool problem which consists of a skirt and bolero. Their next problem will be a blouse to complete this outfit.

The tenth grade foods class is working on luncheons. Working out the cost of meals, they plan the menus for a light, medium, and heavy luncheon.

The senior clothing class was honored by a visit from the freshmen home room accompanied by Miss Cosgriff on April 2.

The work of the class was explained by Antionette Charlebois, and finished projects were exhibited. Both boys and girls were very interested in the tailored suits being made by the girls. Their next project will be a silk dress.

At the present time they are sewing colors on track shirts for the boys which you saw Wednesday noon. They are making costumes for the operatta in addition to keeping up the school mending.—Alvina Big Crowe and Eloise Alexander.

BAND AND ORCHESTRA

CONCERT ORCHESTRA: The concert orchestra played at the auditorium Sunday evening impressing deeply the campus music lovers as the selections played were more of the classical type. Mr. Cato stated that from these classical presentations the inspiration to play an instrument reacts most favorably to the undergraduate. Each morning since our concert Mr. Cato has had some dozen or more ambitious freshmen express their desire to play in the band. The following numbers made up the program played Sunday night:

March, "S. I. B. A." R. B. Hall
Overture, "Poet and Peasant" F. V. Suppe
"Celebrated Minuet," from First Symphony .. Valensin
Overture, "Princess of India" K. L. King
"Old Time Favorites" George Barnard
March, "Second Regiment P. M." R. B. Hall

PERSONALS: Robert Welch, a member of the K. U. band, who is also giving us his services, went on a short tour Sunday morning with the university band.

The orchestra members are grateful to Mrs. Renick and Helen Lindquist, violin players, and Thelma Johnson, cello, for assisting us in our orchestra concert.

HASKELL LIBRARY

The library report for the month of March showed that the library's largest circulation of books for any one month during the school year was during March. There were 1244 books charged out during the month in addition to a large number of reference and "reserved books" used in the library. A total of 422 different Haskell students checked out one or more books during the month.

Much to the joy of the library staff the main card catalogue check was finally completed after about 225 hours of tedious checking. We are glad to announce to students now that we have either on the shelves or in circulation any book for which they find a card in the catalogue. The big task now to be done is to make new cards for the books which have been found to have no cards in the catalogue. Forms for these cards were decided upon at our library staff meeting last Thursday afternoon and the typing of the cards was begun the next day.

Library "unpaid fine lists" were posted Wednesday. Judging from the number of students whose names appear on that list, we may expect a good attendance at the Saturday afternoon "work-off" on April 10. To date, 81 students have paid library fines with labor this year, but there seems to be no indication that the librarian will run out of jobs for as many others as may prefer to pay their fines in this manner.

While sorting books in the down-stairs library, about 300 catalogued books for children were gathered together and moved upstairs. These are now ready for circulation and a number of children from the campus have already acquainted themselves with the collection. Among our earliest visitors have been Marjorie Basom, June Bessire, Joyce Carmody, Shirley Myers and Evon Spaulding. We shall be glad to add any others to our list of borrowers.—Genevieve Brown.

B. Y. P. U.

The "Revelation of God," was the topic discussed last Thursday night by group 1, led by Hazel Miles.

We were favored with special music furnished by a quartet composed of Raymond Holden, Herman Bear, Eugene Azure and Delos Botone.

Rev. Carter, the new religious director, was our visitor and he gave us a brief talk.—Leona Locust.

OSCEOLA HALL, 66%; KEOKUK HALL, 64%

The Haskell track season got off to a cool and wet start Wednesday afternoon of this week when the young mens' dormitories, Osceola and Keokuk halls, got together for their annual track and field argument in a drizzling rain before a large following of student track fans in the Haskell stadium. The meet was won by the pre-meet favorites, Osceola hall, by the close score of 66% to 64%.

Two grand slams were credited both teams. Osceola stole the show in the high hurdles and 880-yard run, while Keokuk did likewise in the low hurdles and discus throw.

100-yard dash—Kenneth House, Osceola hall, first; Roy House, Keokuk hall, second; Solon Hill, Osceola hall, third. Time: 10.6.

880-yard run—George Rhodd, Osceola hall, first; Sterling Meredith, Osceola hall, second; Clarence Stone, Osceola hall, third. Time: 2:13.2.

1 mile run—Willard LaMere, Keokuk hall, first; Pemberton Doxtator, Osceola hall, second; Marion Miller, Osceola hall, third. Time: 5:30.3.

Two-mile run—Sidney Stone, Keokuk hall, first; Pemberton Doxtator, Osceola hall, second; Mack Keshlick, Osceola hall, third. Time: 13:0.6.

880-yard relay—Osceola hall (Spencer Fire, Kenneth House, Wesley Wishkeno, George Rhodd) first. Time: 1:42.3.

Broad jump—Howard Pahdopony, Keokuk hall, first; Herman Bear, Keokuk hall, second; Solon Hill, Osceola hall, third. Distance: 21 feet 6 inches.

High jump—Spencer Fire and John Willis, Osceola hall, tied for first and second; Solon Hill and Ben Shoemaker, Osceola hall, and Herman Bear, Keokuk hall, tied for third.

Pole vault—Howard Pahdopony, Keokuk hall, and John Willis, Osceola hall, tied for first; Spencer Fire and George Ogden, Osceola hall, tied for third. Height: 10 feet 8 inches.

Javelin throw—Dana Knight, Osceola hall, first; Delos Bostone, Osceola hall, second; Joe Provost, Keokuk hall, third. Distance: 157 feet 9 inches.

Discus throw—Brigham Minthorne, Keokuk hall, first; Bernard Gregnon, Keokuk hall, second; Lewis Burnette, Keokuk hall, third. Distance: 107 feet 9 inches.

Shot put—Brigham Minthorne, Keokuk hall, first; Bernard Gregnon, Keokuk hall, second; George Ogden, Osceola hall, third. Distance: 36 feet 4¾ inches.

SHORTS FROM LOCAL SPORTS

The green and untried Haskell track team will be in Emporia this afternoon to toe the mark with the College of Emporia. Last year the two teams were participants in a four-way meet in Baldwin for the only get-together they had. Haskell trailed the third place Presbys in that meet. Baker was first; Ottawa, second. In the last C. of E.-H. I. dual clash, in the Haskell stadium in 1935, the Braves ran circles around the Emporians to the tune of 93 to 38.

It's the "H" Club Carnival tomorrow night! All youse guys and gals tear up those floor boards and dig up your treasured coins—'cause they'll go a long way to get the treat of treats at this annual fiesta of the lettermen's club. "Tex" Jones, veteran carnival impresario, in a moment of confidential revelations of the midway offerings, refuses to hesitate in saying that this carnival is "hot stuff."

Once more the name of Haskell goes far up the eastern seaboard on up into Boston, Massachusetts, where the National A. A. U. boxing championships will be threshed out in three days, starting April 12. The honor of carrying the Haskell colors, as a member of the Missouri Valley A. A. U. team, falls to Ray Williams, 160-pound Kansas City Star Golden Gloves runnerup, who was selected as one of the six extra men that will accompany the Valley champions. Charley Myers, Kansas City Athletic club coach, is in charge of the group that departed for the east today.

JUS' POPPIN' OFF: Ottawa U, No. 2 Haskell track opponent, is host to William Jewell this afternoon. . . Not since the days of the "nation-trotting" Haskell football teams of Sir Richard "Dick" Hanley has an Institute athletic contestant ventured into the bean city of Boston for action. Ray Williams will attempt to revive the Haskell atmosphere in that city by exchanging wallops with the nations best for greater ring glory. . . Baseball at Haskell is pigeon-holed again. America's favorite pastime will be no major sport this year, although several exhibitions are being considered for the boys who are seen tossing the old hide around every evening on the gumbo lot.

NEWS OF FORMER STUDENTS

Sam Minthorn, junior in law at Kansas university, has been elected to the student council. Sam lives at 1314 Tennessee, in Lawrence.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Blythe stopped here while en route to Pipestone, Minnesota. They journeyed from Cherokee, North Carolina, where Mr. Blyth's folks live.

Earl Poodry, vocational '35, has been in the matrimonial circle since February with Connie Fields, former student, and they are living at Cushing, Oklahoma. Earl is doing some farming.

Jack Fyffe, vocational '36, who conducted the Cardinals (campus dance orchestra) here is still up in the music world as a band member of the First Infantry band at Fort Warren, Wyoming.

AN INDIAN SINGER DIES

Scores of Milwaukee children mourned on April 3 the loss of the kindly Indian whose stories of tribal adventures provided them with thrills they could not find in their cramped homes on the lower West Side.

Chief Little Elk of the Dakota Sioux Indians whose real name was Arthur B. Burk died after a brief illness. He was 54 years old. Little Elk was reared in South Dakota and educated at Haskell Institute, where his baritone voice was developed. He sang on Chautauqua circuits and appeared in musical stage productions. His wife, Bertie, a soprano, appeared with him frequently.—Kansas City Times.

ED MARTIN

EDGAR B. MERITT

We received the following note through the thoughtfulness of Evan W. Estep, retired Indian Service superintendent, of Yakima, Washington:

"Since coming to Washington I have learned of the death nearly two years ago of Edgar B. Meritt, former Assistant Commissioner. I had not known of it before and doubt if many of the field force know of it. I once worked in the Indian office here and knew Mr. Meritt well, as we both worked in the same division.

"He entered Government service as a very young printer from Arkansas, studied law, and transferred to the Indian Office to do legal work in the old Indian Territory division handling the Five Civilized tribes' work. By promotion he became chief of division, Law Clerk and finally Assistant Commissioner in which position he served some fifteen years under Commissioners Sells, and Burke. His last work was in the legal department of the Secretary's office (Interior Department)."

His face was worn and cold;*

*He meekly asked of the man of fate
Admission to the fold.*

*"What have you done?" St. Peter asked,
"To seek admission here?"*

*"Oh, I ran a little printing plant
On earth for many a year."*

*The gate swung open sharply
As Peter touched the bell.*

"Come in," he said, "and take a harp; You've had enough of—er—trouble."
