Dates: 1943-1989

Physical Description: 2 boxes (.50 linear foot)

Language: English

Biographical Information:

Ira was born on February 28, 1934, in Wichman, Nevada – the son of Hazel Thompson and Lee Salvini.

Ira was born at home, grew up in the Smith Valley, Yerington, Pyramid Lake, and Schurz reservation areas. His mother, Hazel died in childbirth with Ira's third brother. He and his brother, Gino, were raised by their grandmother, Louisa Thompson, and Aunt Jane Thompson. Following a tragic automobile accident, Ira and Gino were sent to the Stewart Indian Boarding School. When the brothers arrived at Stewart, they were fluent Paiute-only language speakers. Ira was released from the boarding school to a foster family in Fernley, Nevada where Ira was an outstanding football and basketball player. His football coach introduced him to Haskell Institute in Lawrence Kansas – and helped prepare him to attend after graduation from Fernley in 1954.

Ira studied auto mechanics at Haskell and graduated in 1956. He then served in the military (Army), stationed at Fort Riley and fought during the Korean War. He remained active with the Army Reserve in Lawrence for many years. After his service at Fort Riley, he moved to Pyramid Lake Reservation in Nevada with his family to begin looking for work. Haskell Institute asked him to return to teach Auto Mechanics in 1960. His family moved back to Lawrence where he was an instructor in auto mechanics for many years while achieving a university education and at the end of his time at Haskell had become the Associate Dean of Business/Industrial Arts. He retired in 1989.

After retirement, he began his work with the Environmental Protection Agency as a Tribal Liaison. Ira was passionate about his work with the EPA, the tribal members/leadership he worked with and truly valued his colleagues at the EPA. He retired in 2014 at 80 years of age.

Ira was a long-time member of the First United Methodist Church in Lawrence. He was a long-time member of the Haskell Alumni and was awarded Outstanding Alumni of Haskell in 2001. He passed away on January 13, 2019.

Collection number: 2024.17 Ira G. Salvini, Sr. Collection, Haskell Cultural Center and Museum, Haskell Indian Nations University

Background Information:

The materials Salvini collected, photographs, slides, negatives, newspapers, calendars, notebooks, and Bureau of Indian Affairs documents, offer a unique window into the lived experiences of Haskell's students and staff over decades of change. This donation reflects both his personal commitment to Native education and his efforts to ensure that Haskell's rich history is preserved for future generations.

Scope and Contents:

This collection consists of two boxes of material documenting the activities, campus life, and administrative operations of Haskell Indian Nations University, with particular emphasis on photographic and printed media. Box 1 contains approximately 143 photographic prints (black-and-white and color), 34 color slide transparencies, and 104 black-and-white and color negatives dating from the 1940's to the 1980's. The images capture student life, campus events, athletic competitions, ceremonial gatherings, and administrative staff, including views of campus buildings such as the Haskell Stadium Memorial Arch, Hiawatha Hall, and the bandstand gazebo.

Box 2 comprises 403 print photographs, a copy of the Old West Magazine, commencement programs, a 200 year Calander (1860 to 2060), three copies of Kansas History: a Journal of the Central Plains, a dedication for Blalock Hall, Curtis Hall, and Tommaney Hall, a homecoming ticket and program from 1984, bound notebooks, and materials received from the Bureau of Indian Affairs, including memoranda, correspondence, and policy notices related to Haskell's funding, program development, and federal oversight.

Also in Box 2 are 1 bound and 2 bound campus calendars (1957-67), featuring illustrations and photographs of Haskell traditions, academic schedules, and cultural events. These calendars provide insight into the annual rhythms of student life and institutional commemorations.

Notes:

Some photos as well as two of the calendars appear to have sustained damage, especially those in folders 1-7, 174, and 175 including being curled into a cylinder shape and missing information.
