Doing The Right Thing . . .

Haskell Students do the Right Thing and keep traditions alive.

Come Reminisce the past year as you flip through the pages of Student Life.

Activities

A cheering group of Haskell students get loud at all Haskell activities.

Below: Everyone say "AHH."

Life

Student Life: From classes to football games, student life continues.

Below: After a busy day of classes, students enjoy a moment of relaxation

Notebook and textbook in hand, a Haskell student is ready for a day of learning.

POW - WOW

From Grand Entry to the retiring of the Colors, a pow-wow is always a night of excitement.

Haskell is rich in Native American culture and heritage. From the four corners of the U.S., students and faculty alike bring with them their unique heritage.

From men's fancy dance to women's buckskin, fancy footwork pervades the dance arena.

Whether Inter-tribal or exhibition dancing, the Haskell Indians "Do the Right Thing," and keep tradition alive.

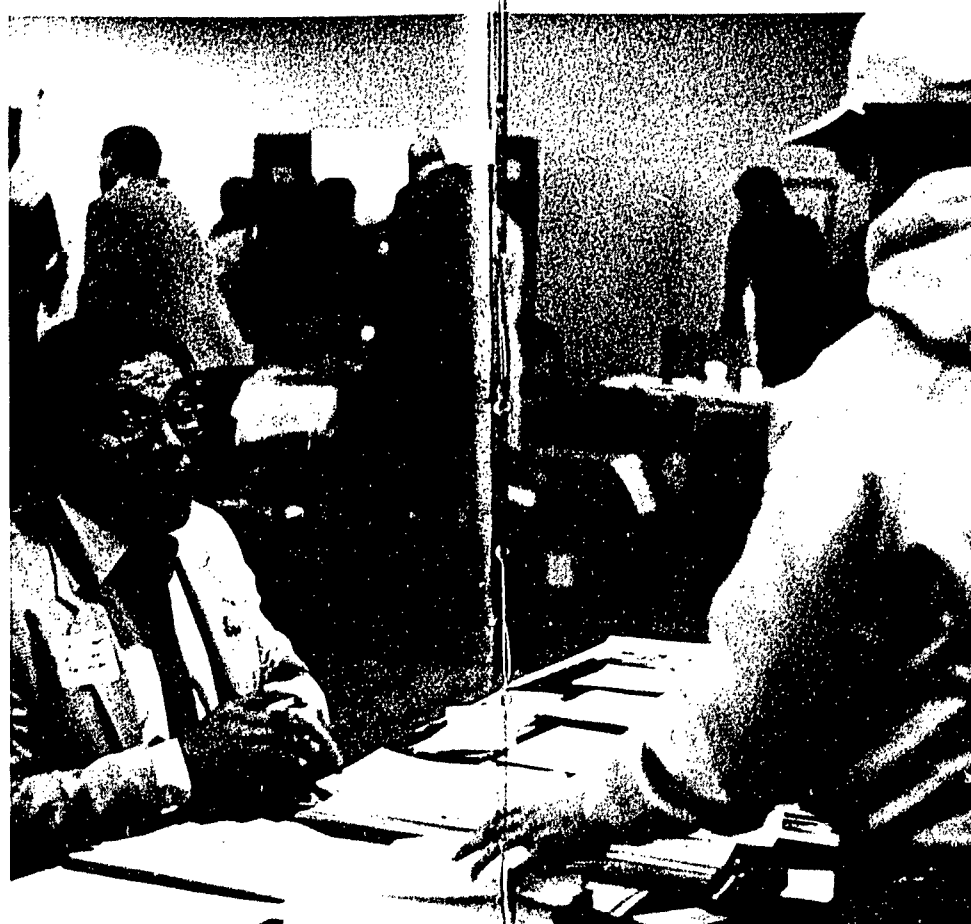

Below: Typing, one of the essentials of a successful college career, is pervasive throughout campus.

Profile of a "Haskell Babe."

Right: Friendship between a faculty member and students.

Below: A student sporting shades takes time out to pose for a photo.

Busy busy busy

Whether dancing, being active in a club or organization, or just hanging around, Haskell students are always on the move.

Pamphlets, booklets, and pencils galore! Tecumseh Gym was teeming with students and representatives from various colleges.

College Transfer Day

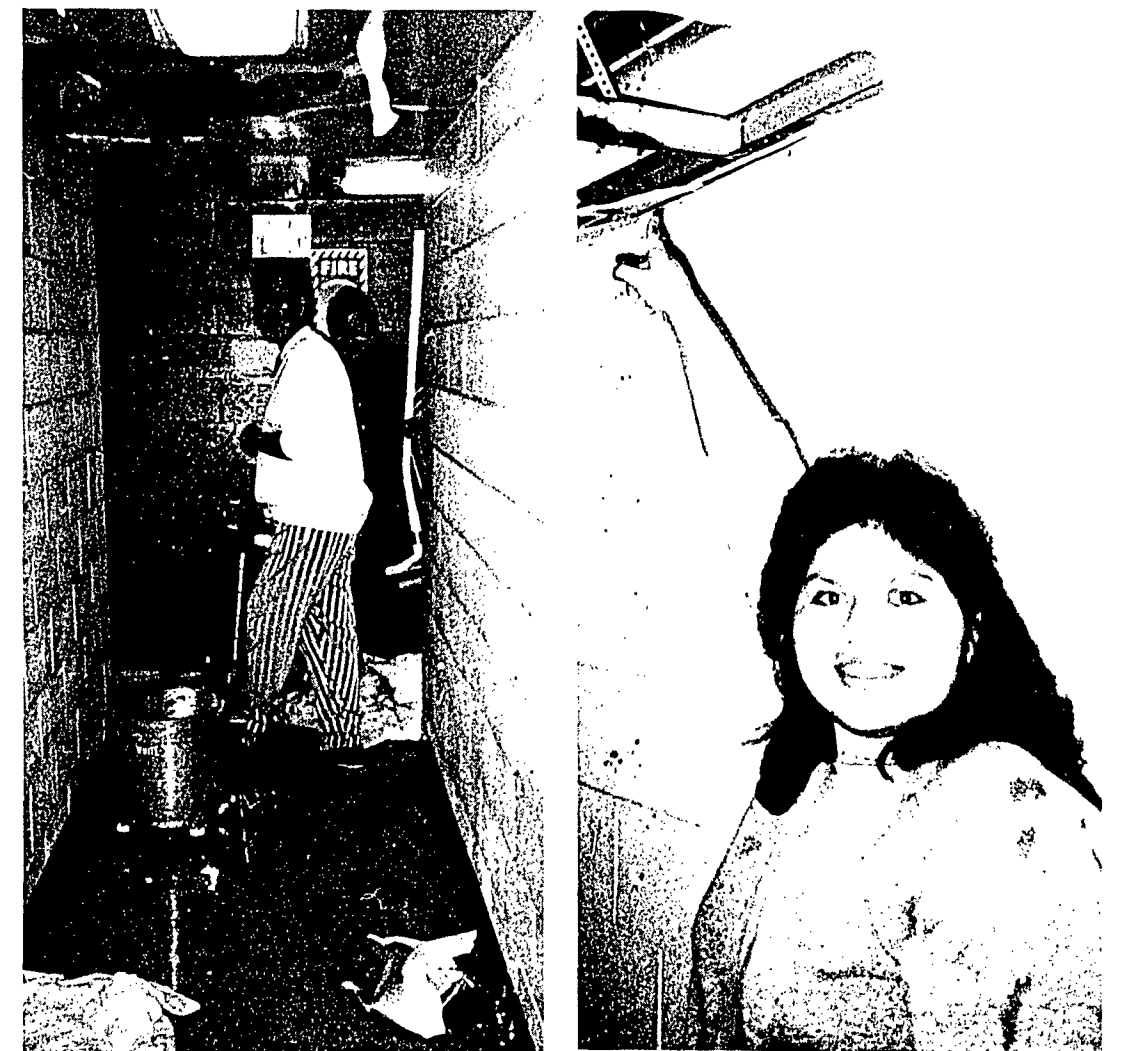

Many students took the opportunity to visit College Transfer Day to find out more about prospective schools in which they may later transfer.

Life Goes On

Snagging, playing cards, smiling, or being a gentleman is all a part of Haskell Life.

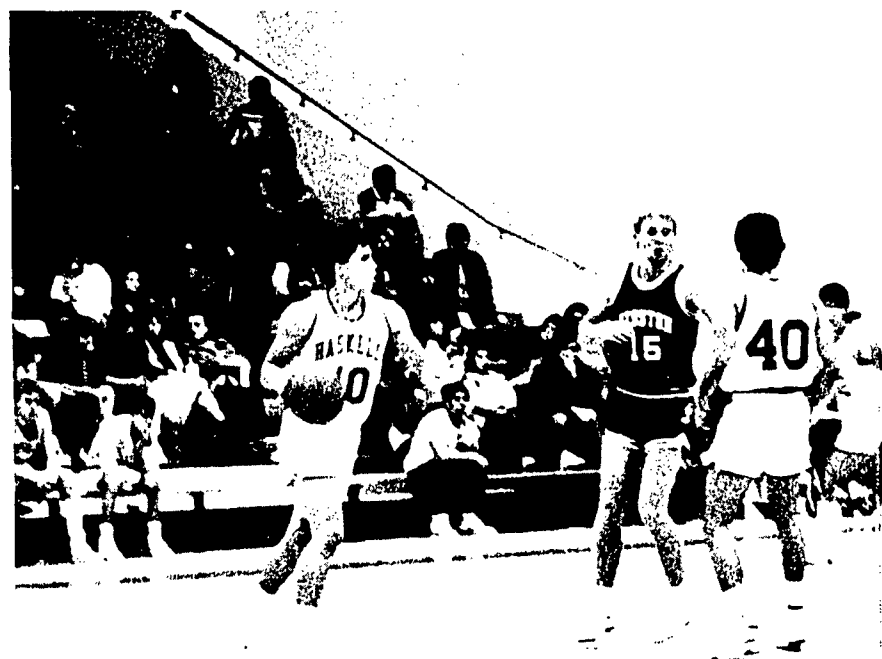

Above top photos: A major disaster, the water pipes burst at Dillock Hall forcing some daring students to take frigid showers.

Above: Munchies and studies combine to form an ideal learning environment.

A c t i o n

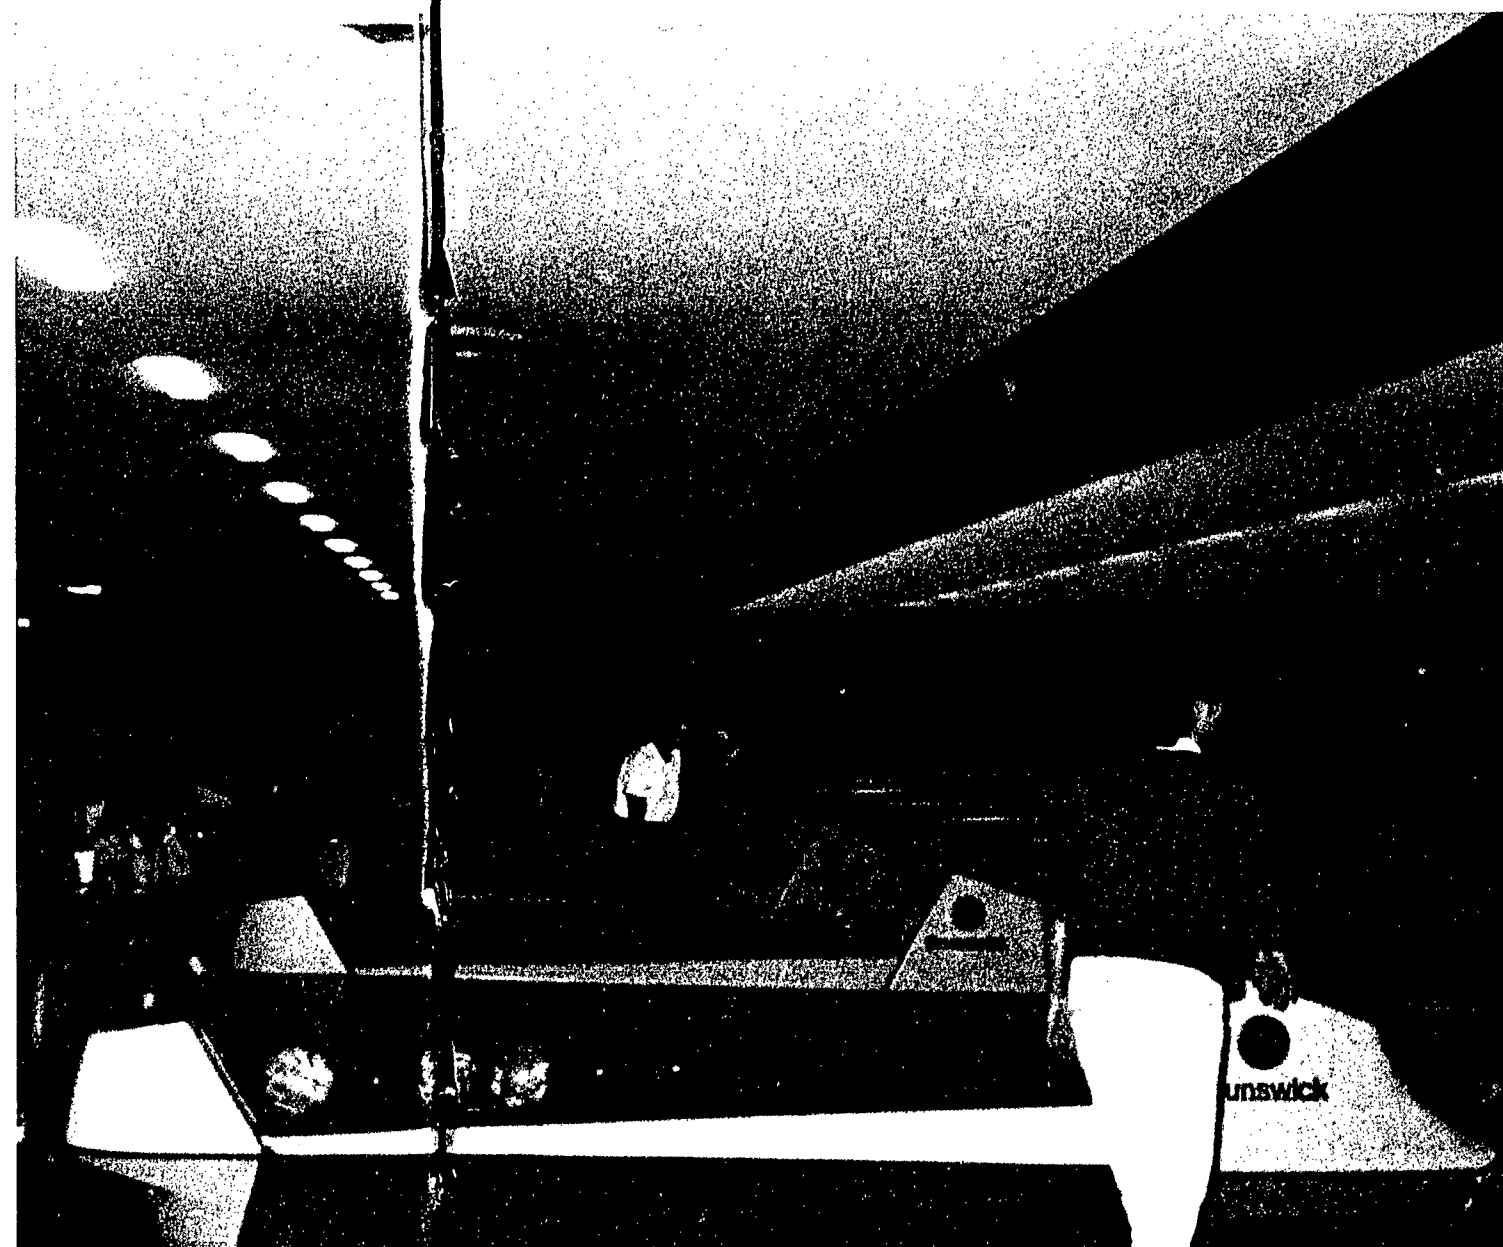

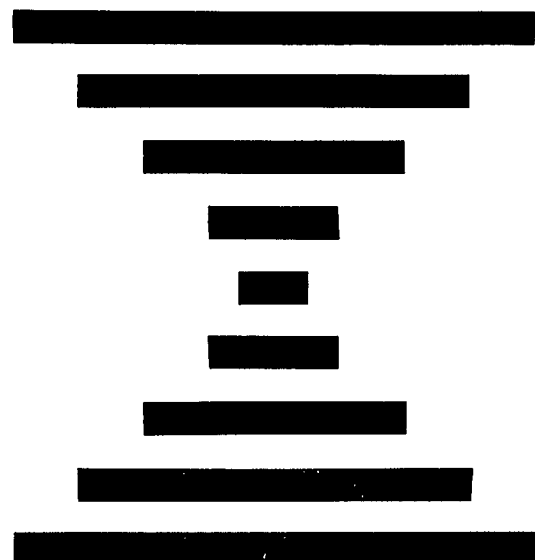

Basketball or bowling, everyone plays a role in the game. The action continues beyond the court lanes as fans cheer on the home team.
